

ROI "SWEET SPOT": MAINTAINING INFRASTRUCTURE KEY TO INVESTMENT DIVIDENDS

New transportation infrastructure is key to growing Canada's trade. We need to invest more, with stable long-term plans that address both current and new infrastructure. Getting more for our money requires keeping current trade corridors in good shape.

Smetanin, Paul & Stiff, David. (2010). Public Infrastructure Underinvestment: The Risk to Canada's Economic Growth, Independent Study Commissioned by RCCAO.